Bear Lithia Water.

Pirpmosey, W. Va., Navember 23, 1886.
Boy Lithia Water Companie.
GENTLEMENT — How can I show you my gratifinde for the relief that I have received from the case of water sent me? My case was truly a said one, and slight pulliation all that I looked for, but to feel as in my boyhood and prime again—to stand in the pulpit as when in my prime, seemed out of the question; and yetse it is. God bless you my heart says. I return case and compty bottles to-day to be refilled, and aball wait impatiently for its return. I coast not refuse sending some of the water to persons who were suffering as I was, and in every instance the reinf was the same. Let me know in what way I can show my gratitude and I will gladly comply.

Yours truly,

JOHN-LANDSTREET.

THE COLORED CITIZEN.

Probably the grandest wedding of the season among colored society folks was solumized last Wednesday night at the Bereau Baptist Church, Rev. William Warding officiating. The contracting parties were Misseman M. King, a teacher in the public schools and adopted daughter of Mr. Archibald Lewis, and Mr. William Goins, a circk in the Interior Department, son of Mr. jabriel Goins, all native and highly repeated clitices of the District. The invisitions amnounced the marriage ceremony to be performed at 8 of clock, and promptly that hour the carriages rolled up to the Probably the grandest wedding of the to be performed at 8 o'clock, and prompily at that hour the carriages rolled up to the church door and the bridal party marched up the alsie while the organist played the weedling march. The party was preceded by the alsie while the organist played the weedling march. The party was preceded by the ushers, Mesers, Galuriel Guins, Harry Lewis and John Hyman. The bride was supported on the arm of Mr. Archibald Lewis, who acted as fasher and gave her in marriage. She was attired to a train cream surah silk, with cobridered creps front of most magnificest pattern, a white tutle veil ent train by the front and back, and carried a bouquet of white natural flowers in her hand. She was met at the abset by the groom, accompanied by his father. The cremony was the regular Bapitat service, and performed by the fice. William Warring, the audience joining him in prayer for all eserbly blessings and the cternal salvation of the couple. The audience was an extremely large and brilliant one, consisting of the most fashionable and cultured among the colored people, and is spinkling of whites, all dressed in the most approved wedding garments. Nearly every teacher in the colored public schools, in which the bride was a great favorite, was present at the marriage and wedding reception and made many handsome gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Lewis, 420 M street, gave the bride her wedding reception, which lasted from So 300 to 12, and was grand in every respect, the confections being served by the Wormley's.
